MASTER OF LAWS (LL.M.)

INTRODUCTION:

LL.M. in (Corporate and Cyber Laws) designed for law graduates and legal professionals seeking advanced expertise in the intersection of corporate governance, compliance, and emerging cyber legal frameworks.

With the rapid digitization of businesses and increasing cyber threats, this program equips students with the knowledge and skills to navigate complex legal issues in corporate transactions, data protection, cybersecurity regulations, and digital compliance.

The Program focuses on corporate law, covering critical aspects such as:

“Corporate governance, securities regulation, and compliance frameworks. It also delves into cyber law and cybersecurity, addressing data privacy regulations (such as GDPR and CCPA), cybercrime legislation, digital forensics, and international cyber legal standards.”

Additionally, the curriculum explores technology and intellectual property (IP) law, examining legal challenges related to AI, Block Chain, and digital IP rights.

Finally, the program emphasizes risk management and compliance, equipping students with strategies to mitigate cyber threats and ensure adherence to evolving regulatory requirements.

Together, these focus areas prepare graduates to navigate the complex legal landscape at the intersection of business and technology.

Course Learning Objectives:

- To let the students, develop and improve research skills
- To let the students, collect data with the help of primary and secondary materials
- To let the students, frame a hypothesis
- To let the students, develop writing skills

A Legal Topic related to the course will be deputed to the student. The student may also have an opportunity to explore the topic of its own. It enables the student to explore a topic in more depth than an assignment essay.

In order to make a good dissertation a student should have the following ability:

1. Have an idea for an area of research.
2. Identify your research questions.
3. Decide how to undertake the research.
4. Analyse and write up the data critically.

A word limit for the Dissertation shall be between 100-125 pages with Font- 12 of Times New Roman, spacing 1.5, excluding table of content, table of cases, table of statutes, abbreviations, foot notes (Font-10), Bibliography, Appendix, etc.

The Cover page, Supervisor's Certificate, Student's Declaration and the manner of giving Acknowledgement shall be given as prescribed by the Centre for Post-Graduate Legal Education. A dissertation should be a piece of small- scale research which can be completed, start to finish, in the amount of time allotted to the student. A dissertation should be a sustained argument. This means that it should draw upon the results of students reading, thinking and information gathering in such a way that it could persuade readers to accept the student understanding of the topic.
